

Frauenhaus Dithmarschen

Help, support and shelter for women and children who have experienced violence or been threatened: contact : 0481 – 6 10 21

In the women's refuge women and their children find help, support and protection after experiencing physical, mental or sexual violence or live at risk of it.

Violence has many faces: beating, threatening, yelling, locking up, sexual harassment, rape, stalking, forced marriage, to be controlled and surveyed or not being taken seriously.

Any woman is welcome, no matter what state of health, financial situation, nationality, religion or residence status.

The women in the house organize their daily lives on their own responsibilities and can stay as long as they think necessary. The staff members are obliged to secrecy. Support and living in the women's refuge is free, anonymous and 24/7.
